You can apply for a Companion Pass if you are unable to travel alone because of your disability

Are you applying for a Companion Pass? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Information for the medical professional

The person named above has applied for a Disabled Person's Travel Pass on the basis that they have a long term and substantial disability that means they cannot walk or which makes walking very difficult i.e. people who can only walk with excessive labour and at an extremely slow pace, or with excessive pain. The Transport Act 2000 defines this as someone who "has a disability, or has suffered an injury, which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to walk". This is clarified in more details in the options overleaf.

What is personal data?

Personal data is information about a living person that means we can work out who they are. When we collect your personal data, West Yorkshire Combined Authority is what is known as the 'data controller'.

As the data controller, we will:

- Only keep your data that we need to provide services you have requested and do what the law says we must
- Keep your data safe and accurate
- Only keep your data as long as we have to
- Collect, store and use your data in a way which does not break any data protection laws

You can help us with this by telling us when any of your details change and tell us if any of the information we hold about you is wrong.

What data are we collecting?

We collect data from you to make sure we can provide your travel pass, this includes:

- Name, date of birth, address, phone number, email address, details of your disability, proof of your disability

Some of this data (such as health data) may be classed as special category which is more sensitive and means we will look after it more carefully.

Who are we sharing your data with?

In order to make sure we can provide you with your travel pass, we need to share your data with the following organisations:

- Card printers (for the printing and posting of cards)
- Database management support (to ensure integrity, security and data recovery)
- West Yorkshire Ticketing Company (owner of the M-Card brand)

How long do we keep your data for?

We will keep your account information (ie name, address, date of birth) for 366 days after either the expiry of the last registered card or, the date of the last transaction on an account whichever is shorter. Pink M-Cards customer information will remain on the system unless the customer requests that their information be deleted. Any incomplete customer records will be removed after three months. Any medical information will be kept for three months after the application decision, or three months after an appeal decision.

After this time has passed, we will safely delete your information.

What if I have any questions?

If you want to ask us to delete or change any of your information or want to know more, you can get in touch with us:
